I'm delighted to welcome you to this, our first season guide, showcasing a bumper few months ahead, jam packed with opportunities, events and experiences from the open call to play our legendary festival, through to our Mini Music Conference in partnership with The Ivors Academy. Between now and March, we'll be delving into the world of NFTs and digital music distribution, immersive tech within the creative sector and launching our ground-breaking Music Industry Advisory Group.

Since returning from the pandemic, Generator has been through a number of changes and I'm immensely proud of our new team, partners and participants who have helped to deliver so many incredible moments over the last few months.

I can't wait to welcome you along to one of our many events or to see you apply for one of our programmes. Together, you can help Generator to build a sustainable music industry here in the North East, that ensures access for all.
